NEWS RELEASE

The New England Watercolor Society will hold its annual winter show at the Guild of Boston Artists, 162 Newbury St. Boston from January 13 to 31.

The exhibition will open with a special awards presentation on Tuesday, Jan. 13 from 5:30 to 8:30 PM. The awards will include a Gold Medal, Silver Medal and three Honorable Mentions.

The New England Watercolor Society celebrated its 100th anniversary in 1986 with a special art exhibition and retrospective held at the Federal Reserve Bank Gallery, Boston, from May 15 thru June 20th. This exhibit was the most popular and well attended of all the previous shows hosted by the bank.

The Boston Museum of Fine Arts was the society's showplace until 1961. In 1980, due to the continued expansion of the membership to include all the New England states, the name was changed from Boston Watercolor Society to New England Watercolor Society.
